The Litigation Section of the State Bar of California and Association of Business Trial Lawyers (ABTL) are presenting a series of informal "brown bag" luncheons during which interested members of the bar can meet and socialize with members of the judiciary in a small group setting. We are honored to have the Honorable Martin J. Jenkins of the United States District Court – Northern District of California participate in this program.

Judge Jenkins will discuss his suggestions for written and oral advocacy, as well as explain and answer questions regarding procedures and practices in his courtroom and other topics of general interest.

The Bench-Bar Lunch will be held on Thursday, April 7, 2005 from Noon to 1:30 p.m. We will meet in the Jury Assembly Room on the Nineteenth Floor of the Federal Building (directly across from Judge Jenkins' courtroom). Those interested in attending must register no later than April 5, 2005, by contacting Rick Seabolt at RLSeabolt@HRBLaw.com. The program is open to all members of the Litigation Section or ABTL free of charge, but space is limited. Those who plan to attend should bring their own "brown bag" lunch. This event has been approved for .75 hours of MCLE credit by the State Bar of California.

The State Bar of California Office of Section Education & Meeting Services is a State Bar of California approved MCLE provider.
